Regulation of the violation of the Codes

If there is a case against a student for a possible breach of code of conduct, then the committee handling grievances and its redressal, is forwarded for a suitable disciplinary action and shall inquire into the alleged violation and accordingly suggest the action to be taken against the said student. The committee may meet with the student to ascertain the misconduct and suggest one or more of the following disciplinary actions based on the nature of misconduct.

Scope and Purpose

This Policy on academic integrity, which forms an integral part of the Code, applies to all students at the Institute and are required to adhere to the said policy. The purpose of the Policy is twofold:

1. To clarify the principles of academic integrity, and
2. To provide examples of dishonest conduct and violations of academic integrity.

Failure to uphold these principles of academic integrity threatens both the reputation of the Institute and the value of the degrees awarded to its students. Every member of the Institute community therefore bears a responsibility for ensuring that the highest standards of academic integrity are upheld.

The principles of academic integrity require that a student:

1. Properly acknowledges and cites use of the ideas, results, material or words of others.
2. Properly acknowledges all contributors to a given piece of work.
3. Makes sure that all work submitted as his or her own in a course or other academic activity is produced without the aid of impermissible materials or impermissible collaboration.
4. Obtains all data or results by ethical means and reports them accurately without suppressing any results inconsistent with his or her interpretation or conclusions.
5. Treats all other students in an ethical manner, respecting their integrity and right to pursue their educational goals without interference. This requires that a student neither facilitates academic dishonesty by others nor obstructs their academic progress.

Violations of this policy include, but are not limited to:

(i) Plagiarism means the use of material, ideas, figures, code or data as one's own, without appropriately acknowledging the original source. This may involve submission of material, verbatim or paraphrased, that is authored by another person or published earlier by oneself.

Examples of plagiarism include:

- (a) Reproducing, in whole or part, text/sentences from a report, book, thesis, publication or the internet.
- (b) Reproducing one's own previously published data, illustrations, figures, images, or someone else's data, etc.
- (c) Taking material from class-notes or incorporating material from the internet graphs, drawings, photographs, diagrams, tables, spreadsheets, computer programs, or other non-textual material from other sources into one's class reports, presentations, manuscripts, research papers or thesis without proper attribution.
- (d) Self-plagiarism which constitutes copying verbatim from one's own earlier published work in a journal or conference proceedings without appropriate citations.
- (e) Submitting a purchased or downloaded term paper or other materials to satisfy a course requirement.
- (f) Paraphrasing or changing an author's words or style without citation.
- (g)

(ii) Cheating :Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- (a) Copying during examinations, and copying of homework assignments, term papers, theses or manuscripts.
  - (b) Allowing or facilitating copying, or writing a report or taking examination for someone else.
  - (c) Using unauthorized material, copying, collaborating when not authorized, and purchasing or borrowing papers or material from various sources.
  - (d) Fabricating (making up) or falsifying (manipulating) data and reporting them in thesis and publications.
  - (e) Creating sources, or citations that do not exist
  - (f) Signing another student's name on an assignment, report, research paper, thesis or attendance sheet.

Individual and Collective Responsibility: The responsibility varies with the role one plays.
